At Admiral Cleaners, we try hard to support the local Maryland communities who have supported us for over 84 years. Every October and November we sponsor a community wide “Call for Coats” that brings in thousands of coats each year. Bring in your coats that no longer fit or that you rarely wear to any of our locations! We’ll be sure to clean them and get the coats around the shoulders of someone in the community who will appreciate being warmer this winter. Over the last three decades we have donated over 100,000 coats so please help continue the tradition of helping those in need! For more information, or to coordinate a pickup, call 410-267-8381, 800-864-4429, email customerservice@admiralcleaners.com, or visit the Severna Park Admiral Cleaners locations at 40 W. McKinsey Road, 543 Benfield Road or 1460 Ritchie Highway. See the website at: <http://admiralcleaners.com/community-and-awards/>.

Annapolis Santa Run – Annapolis Firefighters

The Annual Annapolis Santa Run is looking for volunteer elves! Now in its 15th year, some of the longtime "elves" include several Annapolis residents. Communities, schools and churches are designated to be Santa Run stops. Volunteers at those spots set up outdoor holiday parties and invite community residents to join the fun. Suddenly, there is a sound of fire engine sirens and air horns. Flashing lights, a caravan of fire and emergency vehicles squeal up to the community party site. From inside the fire truck, Santa emerges with a contingent of elves. Santa greets children and adults alike and distributes bits of wisdom, listens to requests and hands out candy canes. The elves open giant bags. Instead of pulling gifts out, kids begin putting unwrapped gifts into the bags - they are giving gifts to Santa! Later that evening, Santa and his elves will sort all the unwrapped presents and distribute them to needy area families. The Santa Run will be through the Broadneck Peninsula, City of Annapolis, Annapolis Neck and Crownsville on December 10, 2017. Last year, over 1000 needy children in Anne Arundel County received gifts on Christmas morning! For exact times and places, please visit the website: www.annapolissantarun.com. Are you interested in being a volunteer elf? High school teens can earn community service hours by working aboard a fire truck during the Santa Run and, later, by helping to sort the gifts. To volunteer, youths and adults alike, call 410-263-7975.

Wreaths Across America, Annapolis National Cemetery, December 16, 2017

Wreaths Across America, a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization, was formed as an extension of the Arlington Wreath Project in 1992. Last year, Annapolis National Cemetery had a wreath on every single gravesite, it was breathtaking. This was possible through the hard work and generosity from individuals, organizations and businesses. There are approximately 3000 graves at Annapolis National Cemetery and the goal this year is to do it again - to have a wreath for each gravesite. The Annapolis community can make this happen. Wreath donations are being sought: Visit web site at: www.wreathsassamerica.org to sponsor a wreath for $15; designate the wreath to the Annapolis National Cemetery, Friends of Annapolis. Also, volunteers are needed the day of the ceremony to lay wreaths on the graves. Contact Kristina Seidel at seidelclan@verizon.net or 410-353-5551 or Stuart Rice at srice429@gmail.com for details and to volunteer.
